

Title: seeking::seething

Sink into me before I rinse and clean

And I lay there, dull and awakened

Oh, my darling, let go

The tide rolls in before you begin

No, we aren't doing this for kicks

Love can't rely on the basis of control

Hide from all of those who seek

I'll catch my breath before I'm weak, again

Exploring the night

I will show you the difference of truth and right

I'll teach you the anthem

Stand up and scream it

Eyes on sun and say,

"I am forever, I am the seether, I am the seeker, I am sought,

I can't be weathered, this is a warning, bigger than Behemoth,

I am nothing and all."

Title: Static

Static...
Yea,
I begin to shake
Me
Yea me,
I use to break
You
Oh you...
Yes you, I think

Trip-
Jump-
I lay awake
You
You take
Fingers, they shake
Now,
Oh now,
For my sake
Away, away
Away
Okay...okay

Click click click
Oh
I might Slip
Though,
I wont be fake
Yea
I'm spent
You elate

Spin to win
tch tch tch
I lay awake
beat beat beat
Yea
Heartbeat
Oh
I can't wait
Me
Yea
Me
I fall in fate

Title: Sea of Pity

I have come to eat the seed

They have come to waste the sea

There is not more that would rather come

I've been thinking "all's a dream"

They've been saying it's up to me

They do not see more than what they've got

But feeling the wind in your hair

Does that not prove something else is there?

So they will come And they will see

All the things we can't define

On your knees, you're never free

No matter if you see to believe

Stand in one place

Then you will face

Your predisposed sense of judgment day

Waste the sea, dead to me

There is more to this than play and gods

Rise or die

Title: Sea of Pity pt.2

Have you always been the biggest fool to deny?

In vain and strained, cast down before my eyes

Tricked by your own dreams, what is reality?

The goddess falls to her knees, slain by principality

Deject

Leave it

Swallow up

Bleed it

Broken and babbling with no musings to impress the rest

Unless...

I yell out "Confess!"

A witch! A whore! Half caste and nothing more!

Lost in dungeons made of elaborate synths and earthy imps

You limp?

Pity

I'm spent

Title: Show Me More Pain

And (when you told me “goodbye”)

I watched you go so far

Had I driven you off as a car?

Saw tears streaming off your heart

And

It lets me know your sane

Drove that car off the cliff anyway

Just give me some time to pain

And

I recognize this silence

We had it before dying

Thoughts quietly rampage in violence

And

Then I must go away

Excavate the car another day

There's been too many goodbyes alway

Title: Told/You/So

We've been carrying this love

Like love from the movies

Someone once told me

I only do it for fun

Here I go again

Looking out past your skin

Thinking so quick

Your actions I can't forget

I have my morality

Shh/Don't silence me

I stand up straight with base vitality

I'm slick, but I can't lie to me

All of these things come and go

Thinking of more times I will tell you so
